GATEWAYS TO BEIJING

Gateways to Beijing is unlike any other travel books, which simply introduces the city's hotels, hot spots, and the main tourist destinations. This unique travel guide delves deep into the inner workings of Beijing – its past and present. It provides travellers who seek to understand the ancient city of over 17 million at a deeper level – its history, culture, people, current needs and developments – with vital insights and information shared by authors Mark and Misty Littlewood.

Gateways to Beijing covers the following sections:

- History – broad overview of how Beijing, as a city, came to be.
- Overview – help readers to understand the statistical, cultural, social, and economic matrix that is Beijing.
- Preparing to Come to Beijing – offers practical information on preparing for a trip to the Chinese capital.
  - Practical Information for Visiting Beijing – visitor information and insights for a great on-the-ground Beijing travel experience.
  - Setting Up in Beijing – helpful information for those who plan to stay in Beijing for a longer period of time.
  - Key Sites – introduces famous and lesser-known, yet key, sites in and around Beijing Municipality, providing historical and cultural information, and instructions for how to get to each site.
  - Directories and Resources – features listings of useful phone numbers, addresses, websites and other resources.
  - 40-day Prayer Guide – provides prayer prompters to help Christians pray fervently for China.
